

1905-046 Chancery Causes: James Quillen vs Lucy Burton Quillen
Lee Co.

Burton, Hans

CA-Divorce
T-Vices
Migration

To the Hon H.A.W.Skeen, Judge of the Circuit Court for Lee County:

Humbly complaining your orator James Quillen would respectfully represent and show unto your honor that on the 11th day of September, 1898, he was married to Lucy Burton, in Hancock County Tenn., and that as man and wife your orator and his said wife lived together for the period of Five week and Three days, when she, the said Lucy Burton, without just reason or lawful excuse, deserted your orator, and has ever since refused to live with him, and has ever since that time lived separate and ^aap~~r~~t from your said orator. Your orator alleges and will¹ show unto your honor that his said wife deserted him without any just reason or lawful excuse and has since the date of said separation as aforesaid refused to live with your orator any more.

Your orator furthur charges that the said Lucy Burton, his wife has been, since the said separation, ~~been~~ guilty of adultery, which was without the consent, connivance or procurement of your said orator.

Your orator furthur alleges that his said wife has deserted him for more than three years next preceeding the institution of this suit.

Your orator furthur alleges that he has been a citizen of Lee county for more than one year preceeding the institution of this suit, and alleges that he came to Lee County Virginia in the month of February 1901, where he has since had his home and been resident.

Your orator would furthur represent and show unto your honor that the said Lucy Burton is a non-resident of the State Of Virginia, and resides in Tennessee; that he is a poor man and ill able to bear the expense of this suit, and asks that the order of publication be dispensed with. Your orator alleges that he has had a copy of the summons issued in this suit served upon her, as will appear by the copy thereof herewith returned, and a copy of the notice to take depositions.

The prayer therefore of your orator is that ~~xx~~ Lucy Burton Quillen, his said wife, be made a party defendant to this bill of complaint and be required to answer the same, but not under oath that being expressly waived, that upon a hearing a divorce a vinculo matrimonae be granted him, and that the bonds of matrimony hertofore existing between him and the said defendant be forever dissolved; and may all other and furthur relief be granted your orator that the nature of his cause and good concience requires and he will ever pray &c.

James Quillen,

Complainant,

vs

In Chancery,

Lucy Burton Quillen,

Defendant.

This cause came on this day to be heard upon the bill of the complainant, and the depositions of witnesses, and it appearing to the court that the defendant has been duly summoned to appear, and she failing to appear plead or answer, and the court being of the opinion from the deposition of witnesses duly taken and filed in this cause that the said defendant has deserted the plaintiff for more than three years next preceeding the institution of this^s suit without cause it is therefore adjudged ordered and decreed that the bonds of matrimony hertofore existing between the said plaintiff and defendant, be and the same are hereby ^{over}for dissolved, and the said plaintiff is hereby awarded a divorce from said defendant a vinculo matrimonae. And this cause is stricken from the docket.
